

Hansel and Gretel Presented By Woman's Club Music Department

By OLIVE P. LANSBURY

THE story of Hansel and Gretel, one of the children's favorites, was told in song Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the music department of the Woman's club.

The stage was set to represent an outdoor scene with the aid of foliage and flowers. The effect quite pretty and artistic. Each character, in costume, was chosen with happy selection for the role which she enacted. Miss Barbara Worcester was Hansel, Mrs. H. M. Long was Gretel and their numbers were given in artistic manner. Their singing of the prayer was one of the most successful.

Informal Tea and Shower In Honor Of Miss Dorcas Anne Payne, Bride-Elect

MISS BEATRICE STILES is giving an informal tea and shower of gifts this afternoon for Miss Dorcas Anne Payne, the bride-elect, one of many in honor of Miss Payne prior to her marriage. The affair is at the Stiles home on Montana street and Mrs. V. R. Stiles assisted her daughter with the hospitality of the afternoon.

The Christmas theme was used in the decorations, featured among the other symbols being holly and a Christmas tree where gifts were placed for the honor guest. At tea time salads, sandwiches, ices and cake were served.

The guests present are Misses Payne, Dorothy Lackland, Frances and Dorothy Smith, Harriet Smith, Marie and Betty Albus, Anne Magriffin, Alice Myers, Alaina and Burton Orendorff, Katherine Dick, Nancy Scott Williams, Mildred Rogers, Lena Robinson, Frances Oppenheimer, Anne Meyer, Mary Hill, Louise and Helen Kettler, Mildred Fox, Phyllis Lorch, Elizabeth Stevens, Stella Beck, Margaret Gething, Genevieve Hannel, Lila Adine Owen, Clara Hawthine, Helen Stewart, Ruth Schwartz, Mary and Grace Githner, Dorothy Horwood, Mrs. James Alfano, Mrs. H. E. Klopfer and Mrs. U. L. Bouquet.

Mrs. Shutes Honors Visitors With Christmas Party This Afternoon

MRS. W. R. SHUTES is giving a smart affair this afternoon to honor Mrs. Francis Beall, of Los Angeles and for Mrs. Doyle Campbell, the courtesy being a bridge party at which there are 40 guests. Mrs. Shutes is giving the party at her green home on Montana street and she is assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. H. Anderson. A Christmas motif in decoration is utilized in the reception rooms with poinsettias as the central theme and other appointments of crimson and green in artistic blending.

Mrs. O. Harms assisted also in the courtesy of the afternoon and five prizes are to be awarded. A high score prize, a low score prize, a cut prize and a gift for each guest. All were dainty pictures. At the 10 o'clock hour a hot menu with blackberries and cake will be served.

Austin Gill Weds Marjorie Shaw Of Las Vegas, Live In California

THERE was a quiet wedding service on Wednesday at St. Clement's Episcopal church chapel which united in marriage Austin Gill, of Los Angeles and Miss Marjorie Shaw, of Las Vegas, N. M.

Dr. Fuller Swift read the ceremony. The only guests present were Maj. and Mrs. E. H. Burgher and Murray Johnston, the latter a close friend of Mr. Gill's, who came for the wedding. Maj. Burgher, in the absence of any member of the bride's family, gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a large gown of green with a train and her carriage bouquet was of corn flowers matching the touches of blue in her hair. Her hat was a beautiful turban, and accessories were also of blue. The wedding party dined at the El Paso del Norte hotel later in the day and in the afternoon the couple left for Los Angeles, where they will reside. The bride has a number of friends here, where she has often been the guest of her brother, Capt. Henry Shaw, of the 82d field artillery, who is on present on recruiting duty in Los Angeles. She is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Franklin Shaw, of Las Vegas.

Mr. Gill is a graduate of the 1918 class of law in Harvard university and served as captain of artillery during the world war. He is a writer of note and is now engaged in literary work in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Gill was the guest of Maj. and Mrs. Burgher at their quarters in the El Paso del Norte hotel for several days prior to her wedding.

Miss Marie Seymour became the bride of John Owen Wednesday afternoon in the parlors of the Fisher hotel. The youthful bride was beautiful in her suit of dark blue with a hat of modish design matching. Her arm bouquet was a great shower of pink carnations. Enrique Raspo, violinist, played during the ceremony and afterward.

In the afternoon the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Mr. Owen's relatives in Wichita Falls, Texas. Later they will go to Pecon, Texas, to live. Mrs. Owen is a daughter of the late Gen. and Mrs. William Seymour. Gen. Seymour and his family came to join the Boer colony in Mesilla valley several years ago.

Among the relatives present were Floyd Owen, Wichita Falls; Harvey Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell, Frank Bell, Miss Edna Lee Bell, Mrs. J. E. Shumate, Oscar Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Villanueva, Mrs. E. J. Villanueva, Heveta Seymour and Hector Seymour.

The wedding of George W. Dean and Mrs. Mary Ella Farmer of Dublin, Texas, was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by Rev. Henry Van Valkenburgh at the parsonage of the First Methodist church.

The bride was given in a black satin frock heavily beaded and wore a smart hat of brown panne velvet and fur. Her arm bouquet was of pink roses and carnations.

The couple will reside in Mr. Dean's suite in Dean court.

After the ceremony a dinner was served for the wedding party at a downtown hotel where decorations were of pink and white carnations. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dean, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Miller, Miss Anna Weidenbaum and S. C. Andrews.

Women's Organizations

The Women's Missionary society of the First Christian church held its regular session on Tuesday evening at the church. The men's division of the society had charge of the program. It was the first program directed by the men and was an excellent one.

The parlors were decorated in Christmas style, with large baskets of poinsettias. A business session was continued by the president, Mrs. B. E. Ross and the subject for the program was "New Emphasis on the Need of a Savior," with George W. Sinder as soloist. The devotionals program was led by T. H. Patterson and Dr. Willis R. Smith gave a talk, his subject "Personal Evangelism, the Greatest Work in the World."

A quartet of male voices including J. B. Cook, W. H. McDonald, W. S. Berkshire and W. H. Homan, accompanied by Edwila C. Kolkmeier, sang a talk, "The Necessity for a Savior" was given by S. A. Socket. This was followed by another solo by the quartet and then the benediction by the society. The dinner for having the largest percent of members present was given by the men's division. A social hour followed the program and refreshments were served.

R. E. Ross was assisted by Mr. Keener.

Camp Fire Supper Will Feature The Hike Of Y. W. C. A. Girls and Escorts

THE latest pleasant activities launched at the Y. W. C. A. are the hikes enjoyed by the business girls of the "Y" and their escorts, each second and fourth Thursday evenings of the month.

This evening the party will leave the central "Y" building at 8:15 o'clock, hiking to a point near the School of Mines, where steak and coffee will be cooked over a camp fire. The evening will be spent in enjoying story and song. Miss Edna Harmon and Mrs. Helen Morris will be chaperones. About 30 hikes will be numbered to the party.

"Ware's Black Powder Brings Sure Relief from Stomach Trouble"

So writes a Clinton, N. C., woman who was relieved of a bad case of Catarrh of the Stomach.

"The doctors said I had catarrh of the stomach in a very bad stage. I suffered greatly and lived on raw eggs and butter milk for weeks, but I did not relieve me. I heard of Ware's Black Powder and commenced taking it and a beautiful change for the better commenced at once. Now I eat anything I want and suffer no pain. I consider Ware's Black Powder a sure cure for all stomach troubles."

This writes Mrs. Mary McHenry of Clinton, N. C., on May 19, 1920; and her experience is similar to that of hundreds of others. Ware's Black Powder is sold at all drug stores, 10c, 50c and $1.20 the package. Contains no harmful drugs. Does not purge. Used for over 40 years. THE WARE CHEMICAL CO., Dallas.

One might suggest that your choice of these original Paris creations would make a treasured gift for wife or daughter.

For Women Who Set The Fashions Rather Than Follow Them

It is needless to tell you what peculiar charm attaches to a genuine Paris Model. Beautiful as are the reproductions, they are, of course, only the altar of roses. The originals are the roses themselves!

These importations have arrived for women who set the fashions rather than follow them and consist of exquisite evening gowns of scintillant sequins—wraps of rich velvets—afternoon gowns of Spring's flowerlike tints—street frocks and suits of satin, crepe de chine and serges—and elaborate costume blouses—each an exclusive model.

Due To Favorable Exchange Pricings Moderate

And, lastly, a word in regard to pricings is timely—for these Original Paris Models are actually no more expensive than are similar creations from renowned American houses. This may appear ludicrous—but it is true—due to the favorable exchange conditions now existing between France and America.

Coast Guard Establishes New Life Saving Records

Washington, D. C., Dec. 8.—New records in saving life and assisting distressed vessels were set by the coast guard during the 1920 fiscal year, and the annual report of commandant W. L. Reynolds, made public today.

Rescue aggregated 2411. Vessels and cargoes valued at $55,478,786 were assisted as against $50,000,000 in any preceding year, and 607 crafts were seized for law violation.

Strong opposition to carrying the coast guard into the naval establishment as proposed last year by secretary Daniels is expressed in the report.
